

November 2018

This month sees the expected reduction in Category M prices to recover previously delivered excess margin and should continue until next March:

<https://psnc.org.uk/our-news/community-pharmacy-funding-announcement-funding-of-2-592bn-agreed-for-2018-19/>

Every Category M line has reduced in price, usually in the range 8-12% although the reductions aren't so large for those lines which cost less than £1 to begin with.

Apart from the probably rarely used risperidone 6mg tablets, there are no other changes of note.

Price concessions were eventually granted for 45 Category M lines last month, again via 3 separate communications the last of which was on 1st November.
