

December 2022
The elves are unhappy. Not only have they had to take time away from Christmas preparations to bring a special mid-quarter Tariffwatch but they have to report that Category M prices have all increased.
With only an odd exception, every Category M line is up by between 2.0 and 4.5% which allows the retained margin in community pharmacy to increase by £12.5M per quarter: https://psnc.org.uk/our-news/december-2022-category-m-prices-uplift/
There aren't really any other major price moves to comment on although for a change, there are many more price decreases than increases for Category A lines.
We finish with a reminder that price concessions remain near historical highs in absolute terms: 158 for November.
Back in the New Year to do Category M all over again...
